1. So many capitols, so many capitols, I will, I can, I do walk you through, into, now, to do My bidding, connecting My sinew to sinew, allowing My blood to flow, interconnecting the inter-connectors who deliver My connections to connecting points for inter-delivery of My love to My Mine who seek Me seriously, diligently, with discipline sometimes, and always loving Me.

I connect, I direct, I speak, and I deliver, and I am delivering many now into positions of prowess and power thought heretofore unattainable.

Glass ceiling not over My people. There is no glass ceiling over My people. There are only glass ceilings over those who think they can see through things, but yet not be able to reach them. I am Me and My power is limitless.

2. I made glass. I make glass. I know the formulas for the formulas that underlie the formulas that make glass. And I say to you today there is no glass ceiling over My body—not in women, not in men, not in young, not in youth, not in old.

3. I come and I call and I confirm and I freedomize, and I am freeing you this day and I am freeing your thinking.

I am freeing the images of the way that things have worked in the past.

I am loosening and undoing so many of the thinking patterns—patterns of thinking that have bestowed on My people, not honor, but limitations and glass ceilings.

4. You have come to Me multiple times wanting to know why people are not standing in line. Ted you will see them standing in line. You who seek Me seriously, diligently, will see them standing in line—in line for many things, waiting to drink at My fountain. I love you.

5. Now walk forth in the halls of prowess, of power, political persuasions notwithstanding. Walk forth in My power and love, and love those who I walk you into and across, and who I meet and sit down at table with you with.

6. I sat at table with you this morning, did you see Me? Did you hear Me? Did you feel Me? I was there. I walked up the steps with you and you remembered, you remembered My word to you that I walk you up, I walk you into these hallways, up these steps, into the chambers, the inner chambers of powerful influential people, and I am doing these things, and I am doing them out of your humility before Me.

Now humble yourself continuously before Me so that I may walk you continuously into the halls of power, of prowess, and persuasions notwithstanding.

Limit Me not and choices do not make that limit My ability to flow through you to every persuasion, to every persuasion, to those of every persuasion.

I came and I sat and I talked and I ate and I associated with sinners and those thought rejects, those thought the lowest of society, and I would have sat down and I would have eaten at table with those thought highest as well, if invited.

7. Now enjoy what I am doing. Enjoy where I take you and enjoy lifting My body and affirming them, and affirming that I am taking them, and I am walking them into halls of power and prowess.

And let them all know that there is no ceiling in Me, and there is no ceiling on what I have called them to do if they will come into Me and if they will do what I will show them, if they will say what I tell them, if they will act out of obedience and humility, and mumble not, mumble not, mumble not. Complain not but confidently compliment and encourage and free My body and I will grace you evermore and increasingly to grace My body complete. I love you.

8. Dinners enjoy. Meetings enjoy. Have fun with My people in connecting My people into the interconnecting delivery systems of Me. I love you and I am teaching you at My hand My knee.

9. I am teaching you directly, as I want to teach all of My people.

10. Now go forth with confidence and boldness. Enjoy these meetings, enjoy these people, enjoy what I am doing with them, what I have done with them, and what I am opening to them, and what I am making out of you all. I love you.

11. I paint, I paint, and My canvas is ever before Me and you are on My canvas, you are on My tongue, and you are in My heart, and I love you, and I give you this day.

12. Be blessed and bless all, all Ted, all, of all persuasion.

13. Be Me and let Me flow with no glass ceilings.

I love you. I bless you. I give you praise for praising Me and taking Me into the capitols, the embassies, and the inner chambers of governments and political systems that you yet know nothing of, but will.

I love you. I love you. I love you.
